SUNCOASTERS SQUARE DANCE CLUB:

We held our first night for the year on the 18th February and it was a great night. 2/3 sets on the floor all night. Its great to have supper return though less food will need to be bought in future. Plus on Monday 20th was also a great night and Basics on the 21st was good too. We had some newbies turn up on Tuesday so a quick rehash of the nights programme was made to accommodate them. Our next Beginner intake will take place on the 21st March. First Club meeting will be held on the 4th March and here will confirm our activities for the year. Some members now getting ready to attend Cane Country Squares 40th birthday celebrations and the National Convention in Adelaide.

A Message from Hervey Bay:

Our members would like to congratulate Cane Country Squares in reaching the milestone of 40 years. The recent weekend of celebrations was a credit to Matthew and Anita with their team of volunteers. 4 from Hervey Bay enjoyed the whole weekend and on the Saturday there were 9 altogether, having a fabulous time dancing at various levels to such talented callers.

From the slide show through memory lane, the fitting decorations, the generous suppers, all the way through to the BBQ finale, a brilliant weekend, enjoyed by all who attended. Thank you so much for all your efforts and time. Many happy returns from Hervey Bay Square dancers.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT FROM PRESIDENT JUNE LAMBERT

Hello to all,

Firstly let me apologise for missing a few articles in last Bugle. They will get front page this time.

What a busy month March has been.

Had a lovely weekend 10th to 12th away in Bundaberg for their 40th Birthday party. It was a bit warm with a little bit of rain thrown in but nothing could stop the dancing and fun being had by all. Would like to thank the callers Steve Turner, Nev McLachlan and Matthew Mills also Bev McLachlan with rounds for keeping the floor moving. Lastly would like to thank the Cane Country Dancers for putting on not only a great weekend of dancing, but also keeping us fed and hydrated.

The following weekend, Saturday 18th March saw us have our Society AGM. We had elections for Secretary and Executive Assistant and I am pleased to announce that Lorraine and Sue were re-elected to their positions unopposed. More about meeting further into Bugle.

Treasurer Graham Jones handed down his report on current financials. Due to expenditure for the previous financial year; Beginners Course, Insurances, other expenses, we have had a loss of just over $1,000. Also at the meeting, the subject of why the Society should stay incorporated was raised. While some discussion was held, it will be looked into further at a future meeting. Questioned also, was the need for accident insurance. This will also be investigated further.

Looking forward to April, I know a few of us will be travelling to Adelaide for the National Convention. Safe travels to all.

Could I please ask Clubs to send in an article about the life of that club. When started, road travelled and how things are going at present.

June Lambert, President, Square Dancing Society of Queensland
