PRESIDENT'S REPORT FROM PRESIDENT JUNE LAMBERT

Again, Congratulations to Wavell Whirlaways on their 55th Birthday. Sid Leighton with his wife Betty started the club on Wednesday 19th March 1954. The club has continued to dance on a Wednesday night ever since.

A weekend away in Hervey Bay for their 35th Birthday Party. Great calling by Matthew Mills, James Reid & Elaine Davis.

Hope everyone had a good Easter & for those of you travelling to Darwin, safe travels.

June Lambert, President, Square Dancing Society of Queensland

Hervey Bay is breathing a sigh of relief after hosting another successful event. We celebrated 35 years of Square Dancing; without a caller, with a progression from tapes, to CDs and lastly to MP3s, on our laptop since 2010. We stand proud to have stood the test of time.

We wish to give an enormous Thank You to all of you who travelled from Rockhampton to Victor Harbour (SA) and anywhere in between to help us celebrate. We really appreciate your willingness and generosity to be part of our Birthday Bonanza and didn't we have a party! We hope you enjoyed yourselves as much as we enjoyed having you here with us.

A huge Thank You also to our wonderful Callers; Elaine, James and Matthew, who kept us on our toes and in stitches. What a splendid team they made. Thank you for teaching us new tricks, for being flexible with the programme, but most of all Thank You for bringing such joy to all of us. It was absolutely fabulous to have you entertain us over 3 days.

Before I forget, another Thank You to everyone who chipped in, helped out wherever possible, or donated things. The packing up seemed to happen of its own accord. Thanks Elves!

We trust you all arrived home safe and sound, maybe tired, but definitely happy that you made the trip. Take care, stay well and see you at the next dance.

Hugs all around from us to you
