BURLEIGH SQUARE DANCE CLUB

Despite the onset of winter ills, Burleigh Squares continues to dance three sets regularly with a few replacements sitting out. Our Mother's Day dance enjoyment was enhanced by the visit of Ron and Barbara Reiman from NSW and the little gifts made by Pam for the ladies were gratefully received.

On a sad note, Pam has tendered her resignation from our committee due to family commitments – thank you for your involvement, Pam, and we look forward to seeing you and Bob whenever you are free on a Saturday night.

We still have a few learners staying the distance and they are progressing well. Our plug to encourage past square dancers back to the dance floor has, to date, only encouraged one interested phone call but no takers as yet.

Alan Evans' combined dance at Logan on Sunday 11th June from 2-5pm is promising to be a great opportunity for all of Alan's clubs to get together for a fun afternoon. And it isn't only restricted to Alan's dancers. So, if you're free that afternoon, do come and join us all at the Logan Square Dance Centre. Enjoyment and laughter is guaranteed!

On Saturday 24th June, our two lads will be calling elsewhere and so we are looking forward to having Kay Walker call for us. She is a breath of fresh air and her modern up-tempo music keenly anticipated.

Don't forget the State Convention is drawing nearer. The selection of booths that have registered so far promises an enticing range of clothes and shoes for everyone and our convention bags for the first 150 weekend ticket registrations are looking well worth having. We hope to see you there!

GUMDALE GRANDSLIDERS

Gumdale Grandsliders celebrated 30 years of Square Dancing with over 5 squares enjoying Guest Caller Michael Mills from Rockhampton. Michael provided an enjoyable and occasionally challenging evening of calling, which was appreciated by those present.

Thanks to dancers who travelled from north and south to be part of the celebration.

Thanks also to Past President Harold Liley and his wife Bev for organising the decorating of the hall, along with committee members and Jim F.

A veritable feast was laid on for supper, with lots of happy chatter.

Our next major event will be Ekka night on August 9th, while club members will enjoy a lunch of a variety of soups in late July.

Our best wishes go to all dancers dealing with health issues.

The photo of the cake cutting, is of the current committee, plus Michael Mills and Alan Evans, our callers for the night.

CANE COUNTRY SQUARES, BUNDABERG

May is the month for our annual "Heart Dance" with four representatives present from the local Heart Support Australia. There were bags of tokens which could be bought for payment of fines created by Sergeant of Arms Alan Haslemore or Marilyn. If you were really good you could be given a "bonus token" which Shirley and our new member Janelle received

All of the 50 tickets for each of four raffles were sold out before being drawn. One of the Heart Support visitors won a raffle. We have three ladies in our Club called Jo and that night each one of them took home a raffle tray. Well done everyone and thanks for your support. Other activities included a Gypsy Tap Monte Carlo and Heel & Toe Polka. We presented the Heart Support with a cheque for $217.00 at the end of a night enjoyed by everyone.

Next on the calendar was our AGM with some new faces now on our committee.

The new committee consists of

President	Matthew Mills
Treasurer	Jo Kronk
Asist Treasurer	Lorraine Weston
Secretary	Meg Dewar
Publicity	Pam Garson
Gen Com member	Marilyn Woodin

We have completed another successful "Club 50 Programme" for this year and will have begun another series of lessons by the time this is printed. We are very pleased with the results so far.

PLUS CLASSES

WITH

KAY WALKER

Club News

The first two classes were quite successful. On Sunday the 21st May we danced six squares comprising of the “students” and the “angels”. Kay taught a few movements including Acey Decucy starting from many different formations, eg inverted lines and diamonds.

Classes close on the 4th June 2017

To avoid embarrassment and disappointment please note there is no intake after this date.
Location is Pamphlett Sea Scouts, Simpsons Playground, cnr Graceville Ave. and Nadine St.

Rambling Eights

Rambling Eights dancers who attended the National at Bendigo have now returned to club nights. Several couples took advantage of the time away to extend their trip to visit other parts of Victoria and NSW.

Glenn Wilson was welcomed as he filled in for David while he and Faith were away for a well-earned break on the Murray River.

Thank you Glenn. The nights were very successful and enjoyed by all the dancers. Several couples are planning to attend the “Triple Scoot 2017” with captain Brian Hotchkies calling the shots. Happy dancing all. - David.

SUNCOASTERS SQUARE DANCE CLUB INC.

Suncoasters celebrated its 47th Birthday with a themed letter "S" cabaret night. We had Spanish senoras, a scarlet woman, a seamstress, a smashing Suzy Wong and a Spy who came in from the cold to name a few. Thanks also to those who dressed in silver, sparkles, stripes, spots and stars!

Our music revolved around the letter S and a variety of dances and entertainment were on the program. Nev read a particularly challenging story involving lots of S-words and Elaine Davis gave us some great foot tapping/boot scooting numbers.

It was indeed special to have Rosemary Dax, a long time dancer and life member of the Club, cut the birthday cake.

See you in a Square somewhere!

Square Dance Classes

for your friends who keep telling you that they will learn one day and they don't like going out at night.

Wednesdays at 10:00am until 11:30pm at Graceville (Brisbane) starting 7th. June.

Kay Walker will be teaching Square Dancing starting with the basics, i.e. HAVING FUN, circle left etc. in the company of others who are also learning. Experienced dancers will be there to assist. A partner is not essential.

The usual tea, coffee and biscuits are provided along with the friendship of Square Dancers. The extras are: a view of the River, the park and Oxley Ck along with the air-conditioned hall.

Join us by The River at the Pamphlett Sea Scouts den located in Simpsons Playground corner of Nadine St. and Graceville Ave. GRACEVILLE
