What’s Happening

Welcome to this month’s edition of the Australian Square Dance Review. I hope everyone had a relaxing break with family and friends over the Christmas and New Year period ready for a great year of dancing in 2018.

Have you registered for this year’s National Convention in Mirrabooka, Western Australia? Don’t hesitate, it should be fun cruising with “Anything Goes”.

A large number of NSW dancers attended the funeral of Bruce Clark, a Life Member of the NSW Association. He was inducted to the National Square Dance Society of Australia Roll of Honour for his services to square dancing. Our thoughts are with Arrie, family and friends at this sad time.

Thanks to all those subscribers who provide pictures and articles for your entertainment. Sit back, relax and enjoy reading the February issue of the Australian Square Dance Review, your national magazine.

Till next time

Happy New Year and all the best for 2018 to all our members and interested parties. Thank you to our editor Rosalind Todd who has been working hard to bring us the latest news via our national magazine. Planning is in full swing for this year’s premier event being the 59th Australian National Square Dance Convention – Perth 20-23 April 2018. You can find all the links on our national web pages WWW.SQUAREDANCE.ORG.AU along with our new web pages at WWW.SQUAREDANCEAUSTRALIA.ORG.

If you would like to subscribe to this magazine so that you can view it on your computer as soon as it is published – please do so via the links or send an email to Kevin Thomas at subscriptions@squaredanceaustralia.org. Kevin has asked me to thank those providing feedback on our new web pages. You can play your part in updating any information as required by leaving a message on the web link WWW.SQUAREDANCEAUSTRALIA.ORG/CONTACT.

It’s also great to see the increasing sharing of information on our Society Facebook pages at www.facebook.com/groups/1397239143929309/ - Square Dance Society of Australia.

Please keep sharing any other success stories, club activities, pending beginner’s classes, demonstrations, events, caller training and other related stories to your state editors. They can in turn pass these on to Rosalind Todd who can have even more informative stories to draw from to fill our next edition of The Australian Square Dance Review. Wishing all a very prosperous 2018.

Kind Regards -
Steve Longwood -
President NSDSA.
Hello everyone, I hope your Christmas and New Year was a nice relaxing time spent with family and friends. Too much Christmas ham and chocolates for me I'm afraid...

Upon writing this little blurb, the club I dance at has only just returned from its holiday break. I must say it was great to see so many members back for the first night’s dancing of the year. A little break is sometimes a good thing. I know I had a break from all things square dancing over Christmas and returned with a renewed passion and really looked forward to coming back, not just to see my friends and catch up, but to try out some new songs that never made the grade last year.

I guess sometimes we need the break to make us take a look at our calling (and dancing). Sometimes I guess, we all get a bit comfortable, ie, stuck in a rut, but a bit of time away gives us the chance to take a look at what we can change or improve in what we do. Whether as callers or dancers, or both, I'm sure we can all find a little something to improve about ourselves when it comes to our dancing. Most callers I know usually carry around their dancing checkers (for practising and working out sequences) with them most of the time and if they are anything like me, waiting to stumble across that "eureka" moment of perfect choreography to hit them. Nothing better than a dancer coming up to you after a performance and saying "I never saw that get-out coming". That's when you know you've done well.

For the dancer it might be going over that one move that catches you out every time until you own it. Or perhaps helping out in a learner's class. You might hold the secret that helps someone with their nemesis movement. Who knows?

Whatever it is for you, I hope that you still enjoy coming week after week, to what has got to be one of the friendliest sports out there. What other sports about, have you work with seven other people for the common goal of just having fun. Not to beat the other team or get more points, but just to have a great time.

So whether you choose to try something new or improve what you already do, I think that so long as you are having fun in a square with your friends, you've made one of the best contributions to square dancing already. Have a great 2018 and I hope to see you on the floor sometime soon.

Frank Mathews
ACF Public Relations Officer.
The National Convention Banner

The National Convention Board Archives and the Square Dance Society of NSW used to share a booth at National Conventions with NSW selling Traveller’s Badges, Convention Badges, Extension bars and year pins and the Convention Board displaying archives. Travellers Badges were sold on behalf of the National Society.

A mutual decision was made by the Convention Board, the NSW Society and the National Society to combine the “Booths” and to call it The National Square Dance Society booth to make staffing and finances easier, so the need for a backdrop banner was created. The National Square Dance Society of Australia Booth Banner was designed for the National Society Booth to be first used at the 36th National Square Dance Convention held in Sydney in 1995.

The banner design had to incorporate all the facilities provided at the National Society booth. These were a display of past issues of the South Pacific Square Dance Review, sale of Convention Badges and Bars, past year pins and the Traveller’s Badges for distance travelled to square dances and the booth was primarily managed by the Square Dance Society of NSW. Staffing was arranged between Pauline Hansford and Jan Hearne from the NSW Society and Marion Brown from the Convention Board.

The design for the banner back drop was conceived by Jeane Stewart and her partner Frank Honeysett along with Jan and Gordon Hearne. These people were all members of the Wanderers Square Dance Club. After the design had been finalised, Jeane, who designs and makes dresses for the girls competing in Irish dancing, freehand machine embroidered the National Square Dance Society Banner. The Banner was displayed for the first time at the 36th National Convention.

The South Pacific Square Dance Review was the National Square Dance magazine giving general information to all square dancers in Australia and New Zealand along with a national Square Dance club directory. It was edited, printed and distributed by The New South Wales Square Dance Society. Australian National Square Dance Conventions supported the South Pacific Square Dance Review by the revenue raised by the sale of Year Pins provided to all attendees of each Convention.

Tasmanian Square Dance Society

Breaking News  Square Dancing in Tasmania is constantly changing and evolving – nothing is the same today as it was 10, 20, 30 or more years ago. Your Tasmanian Square Dance Society has been struggling to stay current and as a result, membership and attendance at Society Functions has been slowly in decline. Many new things have been tried in recent years, but still the membership has not increased – nor has the attendance at Society events.

A number of initiatives have been received with new enthusiasm and your committee is listening to your feedback (whether you’re a member or not). The two most reported issues are the cost to attend Society Dances and the fact that we have fewer local callers in our state to dance to. ‘Why would a dancer travel any distance and pay more than they usually do for a club dance – to have a club experience?’ Totally understand – but what do we do to rectify this?

Following much discussion with Tasmanian dancers and callers over an extended period, the Society Committee have decided to try something new to attract dancers to Society events. For at least the whole of 2018, your Tasmanian Square Dance Society will engage an Interstate Caller for all Society Dances !!!!!!!

This is fantastic news for Tasmania’s Square Dancers. Some people will never have the opportunity to dance outside of our state, so we’re going to bring some of Australia’s top callers to you. SOON !!

This is extremely short notice as it was only just recently decided as an initiative and it takes time to approach a caller and get an affirmative answer to availability

It is with great excitement that we announce our first mainland caller for our Launceston area dance on the 10th of February this year..Janice Alexander - She is a lovely person, a brilliant caller, has a wonderful voice, a lot of experience and is well recognised and respected by her peers and dancers alike.

But wait, there’s more!!!! Door Fees have been reduced in response to feedback received that it was too expensive to attend dances

– To be effective from 2018 AGM on the 10th of February 2018:

Subscriptions (Same) $6/Single $10/Couple
Club Affiliation Fee (Same) $10/Club
Door Fees (Reduced) $5 Financial Members (Was $8)
               $8 Non Members (Was $12)

Put February the 10th in your diary as a dance that will be entertaining and one to be remembered. Welcome Janice and her husband Des to Tassie. Show your support and keep giving your feedback to your state representatives. Please bring plate of supper to share.
Dates for Society Dances in 2018

Launceston – Including AGM(?) – 10th February 2018, Heather Hall.
Caller: Janice Alexander (from Victoria)

Hobart - Including Amateur Callers Night – Saturday 22 September 2018
Caller: to be advised

Launceston - Christmas Dance – Saturday 24 November 2018
Caller: to be advised

Wishing you all a very Happy and Safe New Year

ACT President’s Report

ACT Square Dance Society finished the 2017 dancing year with lunch and a Christmas dance at Greenhills Conference Centre, a rural venue in a spacious bush setting just west of Canberra.

The afternoon featured a visiting caller, Mel Wilkerson from Tumut as well as our local callers.

Since that time our dances have been enjoying the holiday break.

And now we are in 2018.

Dancing commences again with a Society Social night on Wednesday 31 January. New dancer classes will commence on Wednesday 7 February.

Until next time, keep safe.

Regards Geoff

NSW President’s Report

Welcome back, I hope everyone had a happy New Year and a chance to recharge their batteries ready for a great 2018. Ros and I enjoyed visiting many clubs over the Christmas period each with their own special way of celebrating the end of the year.

I was privileged to present David & Shirley Gibbs with Life Membership of the Association. David & Shirley have been supporters of square dancing over many years. Shirley was the coordinating editor from 1989 to 1998 and David held the role of state editor and, like many of the editors they were also callers. Shirley ran a junior club called “Scallywags” and continues to assist David with the “Wandering Stars” club. During Shirley’s nine years as editor the magazine went from an A4 newsletter to an A5 magazine. David has been making NSW state convention badges and bars as well as club badges for many square dance clubs over a number of years.

Sadly, Bruce Clark, an Australian Roll of Honour member and NSW Life Member passed away at the beginning of January. Bruce was a long-time supporter of square dancing and will be greatly missed.

On a happier note some twenty callers and partners spent a weekend at Corrimal with presenter Mel Wilkerson. Mel is a great educator. One caller said, I’m definitely going to work on “calling” the move instead of “singing” it and the BIG ONE...... microphone technique!

Our AGM is coming up on Sunday 25th March at Randwick prior to Just Bliss 4th Birthday dance. Members are invited to attend this meeting to discuss ideas and issues in regard to the Association.

Regards
David
Vale:- Bruce Clark
28/12/1940 – 6/1/2018

Bruce was born in Chatswood, NSW, on 28th December 1940 and grew up in Willoughby. On leaving school, Bruce gained an apprenticeship as a fitter and turner with Cockatoo Docks an engineering company and this led to a position as a marine engineer working on freighters and oil tankers. In 1967, Bruce married Arrie and they have two children and four grand children. In 1975, he “came ashore” and worked for a number of companies before settling in to his final working career with Work Cover Australia in the “Pressure Vessels” division.

Bruce started Square Dancing in 1977 and it became almost a second career for him as he has been actively involved with Square Dancing ever since. In 1988, Bruce became a Vice President of the NSW Society and he held that position for two years until Alan Hansford twisted his arm to take on the position of Society Secretary. He held that position for eight years, initially serving with Presidents Alan Hansford till 1991 and then Gordon Hearne till 1998. After a break, he put on the Secretary cap again between 2003 and 2005.

Bruce was a real committee person and worked on many committees over the years. In 1988 and 1995, Bruce worked on the decorations committees for the NSW National conventions for those years. From 1996 to 2002, Bruce served as secretary to the National Square Dance Society. In 1997, Bruce took on the role of convenor for our 21st NSW State Convention.

From 1998 till 2001, Bruce took on a three year commitment as co-convenor with Gordon for the 42nd National Square Dance Convention in Tamworth. Following the Tamworth Convention, Bruce became a representative for NSW on the National Conventions Advisory Board and became mentor to the 47th Australian National Square Dance convention held in Niagara Park in 2006.

In 2003, Bruce was entered into the National Square Dance Society of Australia Roll of Honour.

In 2006, in recognition of his contributions to NSW, Bruce was honoured with a Life Membership to the NSW Square Dance Society.

For many years, Bruce worked as a subcommittee member of the NSW Society, updating the constitutions of the NSW Society and State Conventions. This was in conjunction with Alan & Gordon and much midnight oil was burnt, thrashing out wordings, meanings, grammar and effects for this. They became affectionately known as the three Musketeers and they were the authority on all NSW constitutional matters for many years.
Travelling Australia With Squaredancers

Do you identify yourself as a square dancer on your car and caravan. The sign can be as simple as a sheet of paper with the interlocking squares on it displayed in the window. There are also TAWS stickers (please send me a message) and possibly a variety of square dance stickers which have been available over the years. For dancers travelling the Nullabor to the WA National Convention, it will be advantageous to identify yourself so that you will be recognised when you arrive at Ceduna or Yalata or Nullarbor or Cocklebiddy or Balladonia or a myriad of other campsites. The cool drinks and snacks may be ready waiting for you.

TAWS continues to provide members with information about square dance events around Australia. To become a member, please send me your name and email address at jarmangp@gmail.com and I will add you to my mailing list. All square dancers, callers, cuers and club leaders are invited to join.

TAWS members from the NSW mid-north coast are planning the 2018 NSW State Square Dance Convention in Tuncurry over the last weekend of July. Registration forms and information are available on the TAWS website.

Please check out TAWS at www.taws.info or on the TAWS android app. Happy dancing and safe travelling.

Graeme Jarman TAWS National Coordinator

During all this, Bruce was dancing at his local club, the Hillbillies, with Vicki Dean. There, he was also involved with assisting beginners and in helping to promote Square Dancing in shopping centres and other promotional venues.

All told, Bruce danced and was actively involved with the management and betterment of Square Dancing for the greater part of forty years. He will be sorely missed by dancers from all over the country.

Rest in Peace Bruce

Queensland President’s Report

Happy New Year everyone. Looking back it was great to see the increase in attendance at the bigger dances this year which was a primary aim for the Society. The next thing we all need to do is to encourage new people into our great activity of square dancing.

We had a great afternoon and night of dancing at the Society’s Christmas Party held for the first time on the second Saturday of November to avoid conflicting with other end of year activities. Thanks again to host club, Gumdale Grandsliders and a big thank you to all the callers and cuers for a great program and to all the dancers who attended.

In December, along with many other dancers from far and wide, I attended Rambling Eights’ Christmas Break Up party which saw the closing of the club after 32 years and the retirement from calling of David Pearce. I’m sure that you would join me in congratulating David on his achievements and wish him and Faith a very happy and long retirement (from calling, not dancing). Fortunately many of Rambling Eights’ club members either dance currently or will be dancing at other clubs, highlighting how many of us are prepared to travel particularly for special nights.

Most clubs closed over the holiday period allowing dancers a rest from dancing (and maybe catch up with family and friends), however there were some notable exceptions especially for New Year’s Eve and Australia Day as well as Burleigh Squares “Special Holiday Dance” mid January featuring Michael Mills. A big thank you should go to the organisers and callers whose efforts give so much pleasure to our dancers.

From the articles and ads appearing in The Bugle (available for viewing on the Qld Society’s website) there are going to be some extra special nights on the 2018 Queensland Square Dance Calendar – Logan City even has the man with the hat coming all the way from WA in February!

Which reminds me, the count is now down to double digit days for Perth’s Anything Goes Cruise. I’ve got my Boarding Pass, have you?

President - Square Dancing Society of Queensland Inc.
Steve Turner Co-Convenor
59th NSD Convention

Steve started square dancing in England in 1967 and emigrated to Perth, Western Australia the following year. In 1969 he formed his first club called Shanondoahs with beginner classes twice a week and in 1973 started a Plus club. In 1982 a Round dance club was formed and this new hobby had become five nights per week.

In 1970-80 Steve had a demonstration dance team which performed in public promoting Square Dancing. By 1992 he had become a full-time Caller calling for up to eight clubs per week and running a Record and Tape business. In 1995 Steve formed his own Australian Record Label “AUSSIE TEMPOS” and DOWN UNDER RECORDS.

Kevin Kelly Co-Convenor 59th NSD Convention

I lost a football bet to a school friend and as payment had to attend my first Square Dance at the ripe old age of 15. I have now been club calling for 48/49 years depending on if you start the count from start of beginners or club. I'm actually starting my count from the end of the first year of club calling which will have me enjoying my 50th year in 2018 along with two very dear calling buddies Steve Turner and Nev McLachlan.

My journey has given me the opportunity to meet some of the nicest people in the world and I have been fortunate enough to have been invited to guest call all over Australia, New Zealand, South East Asia, Malaysia and Mauritius. I called at my first club Sundowners from the night it started until it eventually closed some 38 years later and have been the caller at my current club Happy Wanderers for the last 39 years. One small interesting point is that I only went to Happy Wanderers to fill in for one week until they found a permanent caller 39 years ago. If that's not the longest One Night Show in history I would be very surprised. He he..

I've been Best Man, Groomsman, Godfather, MC and Pallbearer and Eulogy reader so many times, been asked to sing the National Anthem a couple of times and am absolutely delighted to be called Uncle Kev by so many people in this wonderful Square Dance world I find the whole journey absolutely flattering. I really can't thank you all enough.

South Australia President’s Report

Hi Fellow Dancers all around Australia,

Happy New Year to everybody hope you had a joyous festive season with family and friends. By now we all will have settled into our normal dance routine and let’s hope 2018 is a great year.

Upon reflection 2017 was a great year for dancing in South Australia. We have been experiencing fantastic attendances and great friendly dances throughout 2017. Since my last report I have travelled to Mt Gambier to attend their 34th birthday. Adelaide Outlaws, Paddlesteamer Squares & Sunset Twirlers have graduated mainstream dancers recently. Knowing the importance of new dancers to our activity, our society has been working on some initiatives such as:

• Trialing new programs to make functions graduate friendly;
• Revising graduate packages to give new dancers the opportunity to be aware and actively participate in the Society;
• Making information available on what the society does.

We are so proud that all our clubs continue to enjoy success. I will be travelling to Horsham for the Victorian State Convention and Perth for the National Convention so look forward to catching up with you all there.

Anne Tulloch President

In mid 1994 the South Pacific Square Dance Review printing format was changed from an A4 format to an A5 booklet and later renamed The Australian Square Dance Review. In 2014 the management of the Australian Square Dance Review and the supply and sale of Traveller Badges, National Convention Bars and Year Pins was taken over by the National Square Dance Society of Australia Incorporated.

The archives are still looked after by the Archives officer who is operating under the auspices of the National Convention Board and these archives are provided to the National Society booth at each convention for display on the booth.

Currently, the booth is managed by the National Square Dance Society of Australia with rosters for staffing generated each year.

REVIEW RULES

Rules for material to be published in the Australian Square Dance Review:

1. All material, including advertisements, must be sent to your State Editor at the address towards the back of the magazine. Direct mail will be referred back.

2. To meet printing deadlines all material must reach your State Editor on or before the 14th of the month previous to the month of publication.

3. All material must be either typed or printed clearly and submitted either electronically, by fax or by mail.

4. Preferred input is a file emailed or a disc mailed. Preferred format is either Word or Acrobat. An acceptable alternative is a high quality original paper copy.

5. To prevent misunderstandings, any alterations must also be in writing.

6. If there may be a problem with meeting a deadline on an occasional basis, contact the Coordinating Editor. Blank space left for an advertisement will be charged for.
