President's Report

What a day and night of great dancing with all callers doing a brilliant job of entertaining the dancers that attended the Sunshine State Roundup and the QCA Gala Event held at Burpengary. Both sessions had a good attendance with seven sets dancing in the afternoon, and ten at night. A good time was had by all. Thanks to EZ Squares for hosting this event, also to our MCs Elaine Davis in the afternoon and Sid Leighton in the evening.

The clothing store was very popular and it was noted that many of the ladies frequented this place. The raffle was well supported with the major prize $100 Bunnings voucher donated by local store and many minor prizes. As well as the marvellous supper supplied by EZ Squares and other dancers at the end of the evening.

The amendments for the Constitution was successfully passed by those who attended the special meeting, which concluded in good time to join in the sausage sizzle for tea for anyone interested, held by EZ Squares during the break of the two sessions.

The Society Treasurer/Registrar was in attendance, with lots of people paying the $10 membership fees, which incidentally gave all these new (and renewing) members, as well as those already members, $2 off the entry fees to the society function.

We are now looking forward to the Christmas Dance which will be held at Albert Waters Community Centre, Mermaid Waters to be held on 10 November with a new format being trialled. With a hour of Plus to start the night off from 6.30pm and Mainstream from 7.30pm with supper at 10pm and it is requested that a plate of food is brought by the dancers to contribute towards this. We have succeeded in keeping the price down to the bare minimum of $6 for members and $8 non-members to help encourage all to attend. If anyone can get there early, help in setting up would be appreciated.

Cane Country News

Our program in October is really exciting starting with Cane Country Square's Black & White Dance on Friday 12 October when we get to break out those crisp white shirts, stylish black pants, shiny patent leathers and zebra-patterned skirts. Then on the last weekend we have Nev and Bev McLachlan coming to call and cue at our "Dance your Sock Off" weekend, see Ad elsewhere.

On 2 November we'll be holding a "Shout the Drought" Charity Bowl Dance. It'd be great to see our southern friends coming on up for any one of these events!

Katherine Gunderson - Publicity Officer

EZ Squares News

EZ SQUARES CONTINUES TO STRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS AND WE HAVE HAD SOME INTEREST WITH TWO NEW DANCERS COMING THIS MONTH.

WE HAD A SAUSAGE SIZZLE AT BUNNINGS ON 9TH SEPTEMBER WHICH WAS EXTREMELY SUCCESSFUL AND ADD TO THAT A GREAT DAY ON SATURDAY AT BURPENGARY FOR OUR HOSTING OF THIS YEAR'S GALA DANCE AND SUNSHINE STATE ROUND-UP. IT WAS AMAZING TO SEE SO MANY COLOURED OUTFITS AND DANCERS WERE ON THE FLOOR WITH UP TO NINE SETS COMPETING FOR SPACE AT TIMES. OUR CLUB PRESIDENT AND CALLER ELAINE DAVIS NEEDS A SPECIAL MENTION FOR ALL THE HARD WORK SHE PUT IN TO ORGANIZING THIS EVENT. FOR A SMALL GROUP WE CAN BE VERY PROUD OF HOW WELL THE DAY WENT. CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL OUR RAFFLE PRIZE WINNERS INCLUDING THE LUCKY LADY WHO WON THE $100 BUNNINGS VOUCHER....

WE WILL ROUND OFF A BUSY THREE MONTHS FOR OUR CLUB WITH OUR HALLOWEEN PARTY NIGHT ON TUESDAY 30TH OCTOBER. IT WOULD BE GREAT TO SEE SOME OF OUR FRIENDS FROM OTHER CLUBS THERE.

YVONNE BRITTINGHAM, SECRETARY.

SUNCOASTERS NEWS

For the next few weeks, Nev and Bev will be firstly at The National Clogging Convention in Tasmania followed by the Country Cruise where they teach square dancing and clogging, leaving Buderim on 16 September.

In their absence, we will enjoy the calling of Elaine Davis, Frances McAllister and Matthew Mills. The theme for the night of 29 September when Matthew is here will be a "Cabaret Theme".

On Saturday, 22 September, we are fortunate to have a mini bus taking dancers to Burpengary for the QCA Gala Dance.

Pam Edwards – Publicity Officer

The Do's And Don'ts Of Square And Round Dancing

How to make Friends and Influence people!!

I. Never leave a square early. Your ability, or that of your fellow dancers, is no excuse. We all start at the same level and the only way to get better is to dance. If you become ill or an emergency arises advise the other members of the square and if possible try to find a replacement.

II. Don't dance over your own level of dance, unless invited. If you attempt to dance over your head without being invited you will only embarrass yourself and may upset the remainder of the square. If you haven't completed mainstream lessons don't expect to dance with those who have unless you are explicitly invited. If you are a mainstream dancer and a plus level bracket is announced, sit out.

III. Male dancers please wear long sleeves. No one will deny they are warm; however, most will admit they don't enjoy grabbing a sweaty arm. Ladies should avoid wearing excessive jewellery. It hurts!

IV. Don't come to a dance, workshop or class if you have been drinking or under the influence of drugs, be they legal or not. Square and Round dancing requires your best mental and physical alertness. Your coordination must be at its very best. Should you be suspected of being "under the influence" you may be asked to leave.

V. Personal cleanliness is important in square and round dancing. If possible always shower or bathe. Use your deodorant, cologne or perfume and, don't forget to use something to sweeten your breath (mouth wash, chewing gum, etc.) Avoid eating garlic or other offenders before attending a dance.

VI. In addition to applauding the caller and thanking your fellow dancers at the end of each tip you should personally speak to and thank the caller and or cuer before leaving the dance. If you are a visitor you should also make a point of speaking with a club officer.

VII. Once a bracket is underway, refrain from talking. It is frequently difficult to hear and your talking may very well prevent someone else from hearing a call. It is also extremely rude to talk while announcements are being made. Try to quiet anyone speaking to you. Give the speaker the same consideration you would want if you were speaking.

VIII. When the music starts, get on the floor. Don't make other dancers wait or the caller "beg" you to fill the square. Join the square nearest to you that needs dancer/s. It is considered "bad manners" to pass a square needing dancers in order to fill another. If you are looking for a square, raise your hand as you move across the floor. If your square is not full, raise your hand with as many fingers extended, as dancers are needed. If two or three couples are squared up and do not have a hand up, it indicates that they are waiting for someone who has promised to dance with them. Do not try to square up with them without asking. Do not arrange squares more than once in an evening. It is best not to arrange a square at all.

IX. Be on time and don't leave early. In square dancing, one late couple or person may mean that six or seven people must sit out. By leaving early, you are telling the other dancers and caller that you did not have a good time at the dance. The "wind-down" bracket is just as important as the first or middle bracket. Plan to spend the complete evening when you come.

X. Always introduce yourself to others in the square if you don't know them. Thank them for dancing with you after the bracket.

XI. For some, square dancing can be a strenuous exercise. If you feel you are unable to dance, sit out. It is usually best to remove yourself from the dance area and return after the bracket has started. Some- times you can learn a great deal just by watching and listening. Be considerate. If another dancer is watching and listening, don't insist upon talking.
