Are you considering a Square Dance Holiday in Japan?

I am looking for expressions of interest from dancers who would like to go to Japan in October 2017. There will be three American callers: Wade Driver, Mike Seastrom, and Debrah Carrol-Jones. After the dancing we will have a couple of options: one there is a Princess Cruise which leaves from Yokohama on the 9TH going around Japan for 8 days visiting 7 ports including Busan in South Korea. Option two is a land tour depending on numbers or there is a seven day rail pass to do your own thing.

If there is enough people who want to do the cruise we can get a group booking discount (check the cruise details on Princess web site). These cruises are very popular so we need to book asap. The club are expecting 1500 dancers so we need to book the accommodation soon.

For more information, Please email me at dlc1946@hotmail.com

Clubs News

Hervey Bay

Since my write-up last month, we have had Andrew Reid for a special dance with the theme, Melbourne Cup. Andrew dressed for the part - he even brought the "Melbourne Cup" with him. We had a best hat/fascinator parade with Barbara taking out the coveted prize for the best creation. It was a fun night with a lot of serious dancing, especially the plus. All of us had to dig deep to come up with the correct formations on more than one occasion. Thanks Andrew for a great afternoon and night. We are now all looking forward to the end of year celebrations and Christmas cheer. Maryborough have their Christmas dance with David Smythe on 2nd December and Hervey Bay will be hosting Glenn Wilson on 10th December for our Christmas dance, Plus in the afternoon at 2pm and Mainstream at 7pm. Come join us and wear your Chrissy outfit. I know Glenn will give us a great time. We at Hervey Bay don't do things by halves as you all know so the following week we have a "breakup" for Plus on Monday night, Chrissy dinner and party on Wednesday night and Saturday morning will be the last dance for the learners - more partying and having a good time. We hope you, too, will be enjoying the festive season. Merry Christmas to all. Do have a great time, stay safe and hope the New Year brings joy, happiness and lots of dancing for us all. Best wishes, Glenda.

Cane Country Squares

We always look forward to having Nev & Bev McLachlan take time out of their busy schedule to call for us in Bundaberg and Bev provides a learning session for Rounds. Thanks to you both. Our Annual Free Christmas Dance was another successful night with visitors from Gympie and Rockhampton, some of our new learners and many of our members dancing to Matthew & Michael Mills calling on Saturday night. It was a happy night with a very nice supper. With numbers enough for four sets, three sets was our hall capacity for dancing comfortably at one time. Thanks to all our visitors once again for their attendance. Michael cued a Rounds session for us on Sunday morning. We welcomed Sandy & John Lees and son Scott Fox after many years of not square dancing. We hope you will join us again in the New Year. We will have a "Christmas" supper with our learners before the year ends and hope they will then join in our Club break-up. Matthew & Anita have offered their home for a "wind down" BBQ on the following Saturday. It will be nice to relax after another busy year. We hope you all have a wonderful holiday season and a very Happy New Year. Best wishes from Cane Country Squares.
Pam Garson

WAVELL WHIRLAWAYS

It's a while since the Wavell Whirlaways whirled away from Wavell to the Enoggera Bowls Club, but we still dance 7- 10pm on Wednesdays. You get a variety dancing with us: Plus, Mainstream, lines and rounds. Besides our two regular callers, Sid and Lyn, we have members who sometimes call and visitors too. Occasionally we have theme nights.

This year on Show Day we had an Ekka/ Olympics night with craft displays and contests in between dances. We dressed to represent a country. It was fun.

In October, we had a "Remember when " or " Back in Time " theme bringing mementos and dressing accordingly if we wished.

In November, there was a "People's Choice" of calls then Christmas breakup on 30th Our club has been running with Sid Leighton at the helm for 47 years. Robyn Harris , our treasurer, has been a member since that first year, as well as June Lambert. Margaret Casey, a life member, joined the next year. That is looking back in time. Do come and visit us. Maybe you will be tempted to Join.

Joy Hurrell

Rambling Eights News

Rambling Eights finished the dancing year with a Christmas party with an International theme. Several members came dressed in fashions that would be normal attire for folk in different countries.

Congratulations! Some of the supper could have come from a variety of countries and regions. It all tasted delicious.

David introduced us the Dominick the Italian Christmas Donkey. He-Haw- He Haw. He was joined on stage by visiting callers from other clubs, Peter Story and Glenn Wilson. Dawn Keenan and Dougal Findlay also gave us some Christmas cheer with more themed calls. Thank you all.

Visiting dancers joined the fun and we enjoyed six sets dancing for most of the evening.

Many thanks to all dances who have been a part of and supported the club through the year. May your Christmas break be a restful and reenergizing one. Look forward to 2017.

David Pearce
