NATIONAL SQUARE DANCE SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA

Incorporated Reg No: A0058827L

Thank you to all the contributors who have been keeping us up to date with information on our new web pages at <https://www.squaredanceaustralia.org>. If you spot any changes required please refer to Kevin Thomas via the update links. He is also able to assist if there is a need to set up a new secure web service to look after state associations. Hopefully we can avoid what happened recently when Northern NSW had their web page hacked and they spent lots of time restoring the damage as there wasn't a recent backup available. On a brighter note our old web pages still remains in place and is able to be updated until it is no longer required at www.squaredance.org.au

Lots of our members are now posting dancing related updates to our Square Dance Society Australia - Facebook pages @ www.facebook.com/groups/1397239143929309 - that way they share important updates right across Australia and we will all benefit at the same time. It is a fast and efficient source of helpful communications of club events and points of interest. It's looking great, keep up the fantastic work everyone!!!!

Please submit your stories to the state editors, state presidents & contributors to Rosalind Todd to ensure the distribution of valuable news via the Australian Square Dance Review. You can also subscribe to this on links contained on our national web pages.

The TAWS group have a great resource of event flyers, dates and activities for many interested parties being distributed to all their members. You can also view many of these online @ www.taws.info/taws/diary.lc

We are always looking at ways to help promote square dancing along with raising awareness of the free call number 1800 643 277, our web pages and if you have any resources at your disposal please let us know!!! Please continue to assist the National Square Dance Society of Australia spread goodwill and encouragement across Australia.

BEHIND THE MIKE

Alannah Smith ACF Public Relations

The hot topic at the moment in the ACF is an ongoing discussion on what the ACF can do to encourage new callers. This topic has arisen in the past with some frequency, and these latest discussions on it have been lively and, as you can imagine, plenty of good ideas have arisen.

For example, given the expenses new callers experience in starting their craft-training, equipment, hall hire, promotion, insurance etc-most ACF members agree that providing some form of financial aid would be of most immediate benefit to a new caller. This could perhaps also include loan of equipment and/or music for new clubs.

Another major discussion point revolves around the idea of providing some sort of scholarship arrangement to newer callers to attend caller schools, ACF events, or the ACF caller conference, etc. Watch this space for further developments on this very interesting idea.

Many of our experienced callers have been talking of how valuable they found it was, as new callers, to join their state and national associations so they could develop networks to seek guidance from colleagues and discuss problems or issues that arose. So potentially, an idea to aid new callers could be to subsidise first-year membership for ACF and/or State Associations. Maybe even financial assistance to seek inspiration from overseas and study what is done to assist and encourage new callers in other countries. (Though don't get your passports out just yet...!)

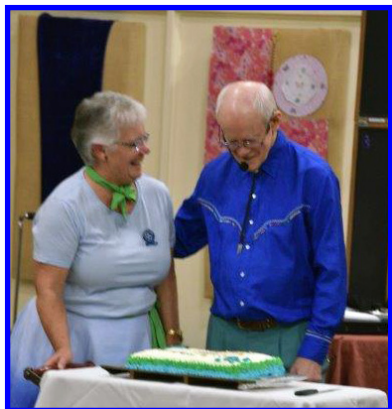

A nationally coordinated plan to recruit, train and enthuse both new callers and dancers has also been suggested. The ACF endeavours to support state associations to promote and encourage new callers and dancers also. After all, individual clubs and state associations are in the best position to know who their up-and-coming callers are, and what resources would best assist clubs to grow. This is a big issue, but from my own experience and observations, mentoring is one of the most valuable tools in our arsenal to encourage and support new callers. Seeking as many occasions as possible to pair newer callers with more experienced ones should provide a lot of opportunities to encourage newer callers to develop their skills.

A.C.T. President's Report

I can't believe that half the year is over. We have just started back dancing again at Kerr-Ly-Qs after a winter break of a month. Since the last Review, the Society in conjunction with Kerr-Ly-Qs, hosted visiting caller Mr Barry Wonson. This was a great night of dancing with six visitors from Victoria joining us for the evening. It was good to see Barry calling again and giving us an enjoyable evening. We had five squares most of the time dancing and I think our beginners enjoyed themselves with the opportunity of dancing to a different caller.

Kerr-Ly-Qs has celebrated its thirty-ninth birthday with their "Mountains" theme and also on the same night we acknowledged Allen's fortieth year of calling to which the Society presented him with a small token of appreciation. A caller run square dance club may not exist in the ACT if it wasn't for Allen, Robin, Alannah and Henk's dedication to the activity. On the same night Jaden Frigo visited the club to congratulate Allen on behalf of the Australian Callers Federation on his forty years of calling.

On the 23rd June the Society had a social outing to see a musical called the "The Wedding Singer" at the "Q" theatre in Queanbeyan, followed by dinner across the road. A lovely afternoon and evening was had by all who attended. We must thank Sandra Tanson and Graeme King for organising this event for the Society.

Tasmania President's Report

We are heading to the 'pointy end of the stick' (so to speak) in organising the 60th Australian National Square Dance Convention in Deloraine. We have a very small committee compared to previous national conventions but there is a lot of 'behind the scenes' dancers/people involved. Everyone is enthusiastic. Everyone knows that this is a big one. 60 years of National Square Dance Conventions in Australia. A Diamond Jubilee Celebration. It is going to be a memorable convention.

Winter time in Tasmania is usually the quiet time for square dancing.

Casino City Square Dance Club is having a few weeks off due to dancers migrating north for the winter (Iris, Stephen, Rex), a few dancers not being able to dance due to ill health or injury (Kaye, Robert) and the caller holidaying in England (Johnny). I wish all those on holiday a great time and those on the sick list - a speedy recovery.

Meanwhile Launceston Square Dance Club have celebrated their 67th birthday. I am sure that it was a fantastic night of dance, Unfortunately Barry and I could not attend as we had to babysit our granddaughter whilst our grandson was being born. Austin Barry Chandler was welcomed into the world on June 22. He is an absolute joy. I would like to congratulate Nelson Cooper on being elected as the club President of Launceston Square Dance Club at their Annual General Meeting.

Our next Society Dance is in September in Hobart. We are delighted that our guest caller will be Les Tulloch from South Australia. It will be an Amateur Callers' night so we are hoping that a few of our dancers step up and become budding young callers. It should be a great event.

Shirley Casboults has been the Tasmanian State Editor for many years. She has done an amazing job. Shirley has just resigned her position due to ill health. On behalf of the Society I would like to thank Shirley for her dedication and all of her hard work that she has done. Thank you Shirley. Until next time.

Victoria President's Report

I have been doing club visits to see the dancers and to promote our 50th State Convention in Moorabbin 2019. Registration forms are now available on our website www.vstda.org.au.

There are lots of dances over the next few months. Some of these being club birthdays and others organized by VCA and RDAV. So there is a lot of activity for dancers to choose from.

We all know that calling is about more than singing and hoedowns, new callers soon realise they also need to develop teaching skills, lots of tact, and a certain flair for entertaining, if they are to attract and retain their dancers. The nature of calling and running clubs has been through many changes over recent years, and this also fuels discussion in the ACF on how to spearhead ideas for encouraging and supporting new callers. Happy dancing – and calling!

Cheers,
Alannah

NSW President's Report

The SARDA NSW webpage is nearly completed and is live after many months of hard work by Jaden Frigo from Victoria. Jaden has given his time and expertise to ensure square dancing in NSW has an electronic profile. Members have access to a members area to view our state magazine and information on the personal accident insurance cover.

By the time you read this magazine our 39th NSW State Convention at Tuncurry will be over. I'm sure it will be a great event. The committee have worked hard and have just over two hundred dancers registered from NSW and interstate. Our 40th NSW State Convention will be held in Berry with Jason & Leanne Nicholson as convenors.

Congratulations to Sussex/Shoalhaven club who recently celebrated their 43rd birthday with a dress up night. It takes a lot of dedication to keep a club running, well done to Jan, Steve, Helen and their family for keeping square dancing alive in the southern region.

In northern NSW, Wilma Flannery's Willi Whirlers club celebrated thirty-five years and on the central coast Brian Hotchkies Dinosaur Dancers will celebrate thirty years of dancing. Well done to everyone!

Quite a few clubs are running new dancer classes and demonstrating square dancing to the greater community. It is important that we take every opportunity to showcase square dancing. You never know who is visiting an area or looking for a new activity to join.

Dancers who filled out 'Expressions of Interest' forms for the 61st National at Perth should have received their first newsletter from the committee. Another two newsletters will follow prior to the 60th National at Deloraine which we hope will encourage dancers to visit the beautiful Blue Mountains in 2020. Look forward to seeing you on the dance floor somewhere!

Queensland President's Report

Following the National Convention I was fortunate enough to attend several club dances (Greenfinches, Upbeat SQRZ and Bunbury) and I would extend my thanks to all the members of these clubs for a great evening of dancing and hospitality. At Bunbury we were told about a small section of square dancers at "Gnomesville" organised by the Bunbury Club for an event connected to their State Convention held in the area. Apart from it being an interesting tourist site, it was great to see how some of the clubs branded their particular gnome. Well done for getting the "Square Dancing" brand out there in such a fun manner!

We need to be thinking outside the "square" to rejuvenate the popularity and desire for new comers to stay and learn. Whilst in Perth I attended a meeting where the re-introduction of bumper stickers was discussed, unfortunately these are still in the pipeline. I'm pleased to report that we in Queensland have gone ahead and organised one of our own with our website and the 1800 number in time for distribution at the State Convention.

It's now the time of year when members get to enjoy a selection of Society events across the state. By the time you read this we will have had the 37th State Convention; in August the annual Cardwell dance is on for the northern delegates and in September the Sunshine State Round Up and Gala Dance for the south east. Enjoy your dancing everyone.

South Australia President's Report

The cold but dry winter has seen a number of our dancers head to warmer parts, but here in South Australia we continue to enjoy many special functions.

Sunset Twirlers celebrated their twenty-third birthday, Les and Anne Tulloch run both Square and Round Dance Clubs so to reach twenty-three years reflects their huge commitment.

Thelma McCue celebrated twenty-seven years of rounds and one of our comparatively new clubs Scoot Back Squares celebrated seven years, well done Ian Rutter and your committee.

Our State magazine 'Round Up' is now available as an email attachment with many members taking up this option, as the emailed version is produced in full colour we can now share fully the colourful outfits that our dancers use on our special events.

Our State Society recently held a Bastille Day dinner dance in conjunction with our Caller Association, held at the Marion RSL who supplied the venue and dinner. The floor was a sea of stripes, red, white and blue, a fantastic night thanks to our local callers.

As I write our State Convention is only a few weeks away and we look forward to a great weekend in Hewett, north of Adelaide.

West Australia Delegate's Report

The cold and sometimes very wet weather doesn't appear to have dampened the WA dancers' enthusiasm.

Our beginners in North Perth are heading towards the end of their classes and will graduate in the not too distant future. New classes will commence shortly after that and hopefully will be equally as successful. We also now, have a new Society beginners' class in Rockingham, which is south of Perth. This too is proving to be very successful. As well as our Society beginners, we have at least three clubs commencing beginners' classes so we are hopeful our numbers will soon increase.

After our, always successful, Boyup Brook weekend which saw around ninety dancers enjoying their dancing. This was held just prior to the National Convention. We had another country function in Donnelly River, approximately forty dancers attended this weekend, and had a very enjoyable time.

Our most recent Society function was Christmas in July. This was held at the beautiful Midland Town Hall. The decorations certainly made it feel like Christmas, with nibbles and drinks at the beginning of the evening and MC Don Gauci playing Christmas carols it helped everyone get into the spirit of the 'season'. Thank you too to all the callers who were there to support the event and also everyone who assisted in preparing the delicious supper which was complimented by plates of goodies brought by the dancers. The Society had decided to make the event free to all and there were a total of eighty people in attendance. Numbers were lower than had been hoped, but for those who did support the function, it appeared that they all had an enjoyable time.

The next major event on our calendar is the Callers Ball to be held in August which is always a very popular and well attended function.

Our 2018 State Festival will now be run over two days and will be held at the Manning Hall, in Manning. This will be on Saturday 20th October & Sunday 21st October 2018. Ross Henley will be the MC for this event.

November always sees our dancers enjoying and promoting our activity to the public at the Annual Have-A-Go Day run by the Seniors Council of WA. This is held in the Burswood Park grounds, Jim Buckingham, together with other callers, do a wonderful job of putting our pastime out there and encouraging everyone to 'give it a go'. Until the next time. Happy Dancing

Anticipation by Paul Bristow

Part 2 Anticipation: can you guess what Call will come next?

In the May magazine, on the subject of anticipation, I spoke about what dancers might expect to be asked to do, when a caller is calling - and how this affects smooth dancing - as well as steps that a caller could take to avoid confusion and guarantee dancer success; here are a few more thoughts, on the same subject, including what dancers can do to help...

Anticipation is always logical and may result from helper words that a caller uses; experienced callers who are able to call using couplets (also known as "Chanting") use filler words while they call - to assist the dancers, simple examples of this would be:

- 1) Forward up and back you reel, Pass Thru with a Wheel and Deal
- 2) Swing Thru - don't stop - everybody Spin The Top

If you were to Call something other than Wheel and Deal in example 1 or Spin the Top in 2 you would have "deliberately" confused the floor, which is not a great idea...

Now let's look at the situation from the dancer's point-of-view:

There is another aspect to anticipation that callers should consider and this is where dancers can help the caller to avoid too much repetition and thus provide the impetus to the caller to continue improving his (or her) standard of calling. Too much repetition and choreography, that is too easily anticipated, is boring and may drive the dancer on to a higher programme too soon. Dancers do have the chance to analyse what their caller is doing and I would suggest that any caller who seems to be becoming easy to anticipate (and thus a little boring) needs to be told about this "diplomatically" (a quiet word at an appropriate point in time), so if you are a dancer who is thinking of moving to a different programme (level), have a word with your caller and tell them why; perhaps this will prompt the caller to improve their calling by doing a little more research about more "exciting" and unexpected call combinations thus "unleashing" a whole new world of different choreographic interpretations - that you find interesting!

The final word to the Callers: record yourself and listen to it!!! You can relive every call decision that you made by replaying your tips and considering the "Smooth Dancing" aspect of every call combination; you will soon recognise over-use of the same strings of calls and can then start thinking about what else you could have called at each point during the module; there will always be alternatives, some will be better, so find them!

LET'S SQUARE DANCE ~ April 2018

The Do's And Don'ts Of Square And Round Dancing

How to make Friends and Influence people!!

I. Never leave a square early. Your ability, or that of your fellow dancers, is no excuse. We all start at the same level and the only way to get better is to dance. If you become ill or an emergency arises advise the other members of the square and if possible try to find a replacement.

II. Don't dance over your own level of dance, unless invited. If you attempt to dance over you head without being invited you will only embarrass yourself and may upset the remainder of the square. If you haven't completed mainstream lessons don't expect to dance with those who have unless you are explicitly invited. If you are a mainstream dancer and a plus level bracket is announced, sit out.

III. Male dancers please wear long sleeves. No one will deny they are warm; however, most will admit they don't enjoy grabbing a sweaty arm. Ladies should avoid wearing excessive jewelry. It hurts!

IV. Don't come to a dance, workshop or class if you have been drinking or under the influence of drugs, be they legal or not. Square and Round dancing requires your best mental and physical alertness. Your coordination must be at its very best. Should you be suspected of being "under the influence" you may be asked to leave.

V. Personal cleanliness is important in square and round dancing. If possible always shower or bathe. Use your deodorant, cologne or perfume and, don't forget to use something to sweeten your breath (mouth wash, chewing gum, etc.) Avoid eating garlic or other offenders before attending a dance.

VI. In addition to applauding the caller and thanking your fellow dancers at the end of each tip you should personally speak to and thank the caller and or cuer before leaving the dance. If you are a visitor you should also make a point of speaking with a club officer.

VII. Once a bracket is underway, refrain from talking. It is frequently difficult to hear and your talking may very well prevent someone else from hearing a call. It is also extremely rude to talk while announcements are being made. Try to quiet anyone speaking to you. Give the speaker the same consideration you would want if you were speaking.

VIII. When the music starts, get on the floor. Don't make other dancers wait or the caller "beg" you to fill the square. Join the square nearest to you that needs a couple. It is considered "bad manners" to pass a square needing dancers in order to fill another. If you are looking for a square, raise your hand as you move across the floor. If your square is not full, raise your hand with as many fingers extended, as couples are needed. If two or three couples are squared up and do not have a hand up, it indicates that they are waiting for someone who has promised to dance with them. Do not try to square up with them without asking. Do not arrange squares more than once in an evening. It is best not arrange a square at all. Do not get on the floor and expect the caller to find you a partner.

IX. Be on time and don't leave early. In square dancing, one late couple or person may mean that three other couples or seven people must sit out. By leaving early, you are telling the other dancers and caller that you did not have a good time at the dance. The "wind-down" bracket is just as important as the first or middle bracket. Plan to spend the complete evening when you come.

X. Always introduce yourself and your partner to others in the square if you don't know them. Thank them for dancing with you after the bracket.

XI. For some, square dancing can be a strenuous exercise. If you feel you are unable to dance, sit out. It is usually best to remove yourself from the dance area and return after the bracket has started. Sometimes you can learn a great deal just by watching and listening. Be considerate. If another dancer is watching and listening, don't insist upon talking. Square dancing is a social event but not a place to socialize during a bracket or rounds even if you are not dancing.
