QUEENSLAND PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Greetings Dancers,

Looks like masks are to be worn inside for at least next two weeks in the 11 LGAs. People need to actually check with the latest Queensland Health Covid regulations for these areas as I am going on the latest media release, and as we all know things can change overnight and frequently does! However, we are happy to hear that regional areas outside of these LGAs are currently dancing.

Unfortunately ,the Queensland Convention had to be cancelled, but Hervey Bay Square Dance Club managed to hold a weekend of dancing which under the health regulations, regional visitors were able to attend. They also had attendance from those from interstate who were free to travel, like Gary Petersen, who also called for their club nights. I hear all in attendance had a great time.

Unfortunatey, due to erring on the side of caution, the Sunshine State Roundup has been cancelled. Hoping to have better news next month, and that the Christmas Dance in November is still on track.

We hear that Gary Petersen is still planning to hold the Shindig on the Mountain in October. You will be informed if we hear otherwise. See the flyer in this Bugle.

Stay safe everyone and see you dancing soon.

Cane Country Squares News

Our Aussie theme night in July saw good attendance with sixteen dancers. Matt did a great job of calling to a large range of songs with Aussie themes or by Australian artists.

This month while others have been in lockdown we appreciated the ability to keep dancing in Bundaberg.

Our learners are moving on to our Friday group next week. Their last few nights have been used for revision and a bit of fun. Matt called for a six couple 'rectangle' one night. The next week a 5th couple was called to swap with couple 1 to 4 throughout a dance.

The 50 movement (SSD) learners and the Mainstream Learners with have a graduation dance on the 27th of August. The night will have a convention theme so we can wear the outfits we had ready for the QLD State Convention.

Unfortunately owing to current COVID restrictions we have not done much dancing. Members were very disappointed that we didn't have our 5th Saturday dance in July as many had purchased new PJ's for this theme night. Nev and Bev were unable to attend the National Clogging convention in Adelaide so then decided to go to the State Convention in Hervey Bay and unfortunately that was cancelled too. As they were out of their local LGA they travelled directly to Hervey Bay and did not return home to collect square dance clothes or equipment. They had a great time in Hervey Bay catching up with the Mills Family and doing a Whale Watching Tour. We held a meeting end of August and it was decided that until regulations are clearer, we will not return to dancing but hope to be able to organise a social gathering or 2 in the grounds of the Centre. Our next Theme night we hope will be the 30th October and the theme is "Orange" didn't want to do a Halloween Theme.

Keep safe everyone and let's hope that we can return to this fantastic activity as quickly as possible.

Hervey Bay News - September

Hello fellow dancers

Well officialdom and the nasty bugs finally did it.....cancelled the Floral Fiesta 39th Square Dance Convention for the second time of trying. However, Coast people being what they are, they turned things around, picked out the bits that were usable and had a fantastic Flower Power week-end anyway.

Gary Petersen and Matthew Mills (both luckily from Covid free zones) entertained us for the week-end. With locals, people who could still travel and a supply of grey nomads stuck in our State, we had between 40 and 55 dancers across the sessions. Our Club members did an amazing job of decorating the Senior Citizens Hall and volunteers did the suppers, with sincere thanks.

On Saturday and Sunday nights our Class dancers were allowed to attend and did they have a ball. The experience of 'live' callers really blew them away. On Sunday afternoon we were lucky to have a Plus session, which really got our brains going. Then on Wednesday Gary stayed on to call to our Club members + anyone else who was around (4+ squares).

Certainly a few days of lifted spirits and enjoyment in these lockdown days. Thanks to EVERYONE who participated.
